

Please limit corporate ownership of media--the airwaves are for the people--not big business. We need diversity in ownership. There is already way too much similarity in TV, radio and newspapers. We need regulations to prevent the further erosion of media diversity. Thank you.